

Accounting

Accounting involves analysis of an organization's accounts and fiscal trends to provide data to advise those in business to make accurate decisions and predictions based on the economy. Accountants maintain the financial records and record transactions of businesses, corporations and non-profit organizations, as well as governmental units.

Entry Level Positions

- Staff accountant
- Auditor/accountant
- Corporate accountant
- Actuary
- Governmental accountant
- Financial analyst
- Tax advisor

Further Education/Experience Required

- Certified public accountant
- Financial consultant
- Managerial consultant
- Financial manager
- Controller
- Accounting educator
- Treasurer

For more information on positions in accounting please refer to www.bls.gov

Enhancing Employability

Participate in internships and join relevant student organizations and associations to develop networking and leadership skills.

Develop advanced computer skills as well as mathematical and problem solving abilities, excellent computer skills and the ability to work well with people.

Employers of Accounting Majors

- Accounting firms
- Business and industry
- Banks/Credit Unions
- Insurance companies
- Private practice
- Stock Brokerage Firms
- Investment Firms
- State/federal government
- Colleges/universities
- Non-profit organizations

Professional Associations and Affiliations

Accounting.com

www.accounting.com

Consulting Actuary

www.ConsultingActuary.com/jobs

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

www.aicpa.org

Financial Women International

www.fwi.org

American Society of Women Accountants

www.aswa.org

National Society of Accountants

www.nsaacct.org

Careers in Business

www.careers-in-business.com

National Association of Black Accountants

www.nabainc.org

Institute of Management Accountants

www.imanet.org

Institute of Internal Auditors

www.theiia.org