

Thank you for your interest in Bachelor of Arts in Social Science with an Inspired Teaching and Learning Preliminary Single Subject Credential Program at National University. The Bachelor of Arts in Social Science with an Inspired Teaching and Learning Preliminary Single Subject Credential Program is currently operating using California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) guidelines that allow a recommendation for California credentials only.

A determination has not been made as to whether the Program meets the educational requirements for licensure to practice in any other State.

This program prepares teacher candidates with the knowledge, skills and dispositions required for entry into California's teaching profession as a social science and history teacher. It is designed for teacher candidates who will be dedicated to inspiring all PK-12 learners by ensuring for them: social emotional thriving, meaningful academic achievement, and equitable and inclusive learning communities.

Students need to satisfy/pass the Basic Skills Requirement (e.g., CBEST) and Subject Matter Competency Requirement (e.g., CSET) early (prior to Credential Area Methods coursework) into their programs to avoid interruptions to program progress and/or financial aid arrangements.

This program must be completed while residing in the state of California. Field Expedience and Clinical Practice Placements cannot be made outside of California. It is the responsibility of the candidate to notify the University of relocation outside of California.

To receive the Preliminary Single Subject credential, candidates are required to successfully complete all course work including clinical practice, fingerprint clearance on CTC website, U.S. Constitution, Satisfy the Basic Skills Requirement, Subject Matter Competency in Social Science, Passage of Cal TPA Cycle 1 and Cycle 2, Adult, Child and Infant CPR, 3.0 GPA in credential coursework, zero account balance and a conferred Bachelor of Arts in Social Science degree.

By acknowledging this disclosure, the student understands the prescribe boundaries of the National University Bachelor of Arts in Social Science with an Inspired Teaching and Learning Preliminary Single Subject Credential Program.
