

Thank you for your interest in the Clear Administrative Services Credential Induction Program at National University. For applicants that intend to practice and/or wish to be credentialed as a California Professional Standards Education Leader while in the state of California, the following disclosure details important information regarding Clear Administrative Services Credential Induction Program and California state licensing/certification in the field.

Currently, National University Clear Administrative Services Credential Induction Program only aligns with the educational/coursework requirements set by the California Commission for Teacher Credentialing (CTC). National University has made no determination on the effectiveness for other States to accept this credential.

This program must be completed while residing in the state of California. Field Expedience and Clinical Practice Placements cannot be made outside of California. It is the responsibility of the candidate to notify the University of relocation outside of California.

To receive a Clear Administrative Services credential candidates must complete all courses and fulfill the following requirements within seven years: Possession of valid Preliminary Administrative Services Credential, verification of two years Administrative Services experience while holding a valid Preliminary Administrative Services Credential and zero account balance.

By acknowledging this disclosure, the student understands the prescribed boundaries of the National University Clear Administrative Services Credential Induction Program.